Fireworks: the law

- You can't buy or use 'adult' fireworks if you're under 18, and it's against the law for anyone to set off fireworks between 11pm and 7am, except on certain occasions.
- Adult fireworks are category 2 and 3 fireworks - they don't include things like sparklers and party poppers.
- The law says you must not set off or throw fireworks (including sparklers) in the street or other public places.
- You must not set off fireworks between 11pm and 7am. The exceptions are:
 - Bonfire Night, when the cut off is midnight
 - New Year's Eve, Diwali and Chinese New Year, when the cut off is 1am

Buying fireworks

You can only buy fireworks (including sparklers) from registered sellers for private use on these dates:

- 15 October to 10 November
- 26 to 31 December
- 3 days before Diwali and Chinese New Year
- At other times you can only buy fireworks from licensed shops.

You can be fined up to £5,000 and/or imprisoned for 3 months for buying or using fireworks illegally. You could also get an on-the-spot fine of £80.
